DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What insight, principle, or observation from Sunday did you find to be the most helpful, eye-opening, or troubling? Explain.
- "...the problem is, too many are watching pitches go by and leaving the bat God has given them on their shoulders. And while we stand there, people are being left stranded." Is this true in your life? Explain.
- Have you ever felt unqualified to do what God has called you to do? Explain.
- "If you don't use the gifts and passions God gave you to restore people, you are wasting your life away. That's how big of a deal this is." Agree or disagree? (Either way use scripture to back it up.)
- What came to mind when you heard the song, "Going Through the Motions" by Matthew West?

DIGGING DEEPER

Read Ephesians 2:1-10

- What part of this passage stands out to you the most?
- How has God specifically restored you?
- What did God save us from? What would your life be like had God not saved you?
- Why did God save/restore us?

APPLICATION

- In what way is God calling you to do good works? (Volunteer, start a ministry, workplace, neighborhood, family, etc.)
- Is God calling some of you to the same ministry as a Life Group? How can you work together in support of one another?
- Continue to identify projects for February's Groups In Action. Email Pastor Nathan your projects once determined.
